

Taylor Frigon Family Office LLC – Form CRS

Taylor Frigon Family Office LLC (“we”, “our”, or “us”) is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as an investment adviser. Our services and compensation structure differs from that of a registered broker-dealer. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/CRS. The site also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers and investing. Information in text boxes below are intended to be conversation starters for you to have with us and are required by the instructions to Form CRS.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer discretionary investment advisory services to retail investors, which include individuals and their trusts and estates. We first determine your investment objective. Then we invest your portfolio consistent with your investment objectives. We also offer our management services through various electronic trading platforms, which are described in our Form ADV Part 2A.

We generally provide our services on a discretionary basis, which means we have the authority to buy and sell investments in your account without speaking to you prior to doing so. However, we may agree to a non-discretionary relationship, which means we would obtain your consent prior to proceeding with an agreed upon course of action. You can place reasonable restrictions on the securities and types of securities that we buy by notifying us, in writing.

We do not limit the scope of the universe of securities that we use in managing client accounts, but we generally invest in individual equity, fixed income securities, publicly traded real estate investment trusts, business development companies, and investment companies (registered and unregistered). Registrant’s affiliate, Taylor Frigon Capital Management, LLC serves as investment adviser to a mutual fund and a private investment fund—the Taylor Frigon Core Growth Fund and Taylor Frigon Capital Partners, LP, respectively. We may recommend these funds to you if they are appropriate.

We generally require a minimum annual fee of $50,000 ($12,500 quarterly), although this may be reduced or waived.

For more detailed information about our Advisory Business and the Types of Clients we generally service, please See Items 4 and 7, respectively in our Form ADV Part 2A.

Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Our fee is based on a percentage of your assets under our management and is typically an annual rate of 1.00%. We generally deduct our fee from one or more of your investment accounts on a quarterly basis, in advance, based upon market value of assets on the last business day of the prior quarter. Because our fee is based on the amount of your assets on the last business day of the prior quarter under our management, the more assets you entrust us to manage, the more you will pay us for our services. Therefore, we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the amount of assets that you entrust to us. In addition, investors in our affiliated private fund may be subject to a performance-based fee.

Your account will be held with a qualified custodian. Custodians may charge transaction fees for effecting certain securities transactions. In addition, your assets can be invested in mutual funds, ETFs and other investment funds. You will bear your pro rata share of the investment management fees and other fees of these investments, which are in addition to the fees you pay us. These fees and expenses are described in each fund’s prospectus or offering document and potentially include a management fee, distribution fee, and other fund expenses. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $5,000,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means:

* We recommend Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. as custodian for your account and we receive support services from them. This presents a conflict of interest, because our receipt of their support makes us more inclined to continue using and recommending them.

* We may recommend rollovers out of employer-sponsored retirement plans and into Individual Retirement Accounts that we manage for an asset-based fee. If we don't currently manage your account held with your employer's plan, this will increase our compensation.

* We may recommend that you invest in the Taylor Frigon Core Growth Fund and/or Taylor Frigon Capital Partners, LP. This creates a conflict of interest because we have an incentive to recommend an investment in these funds rather than other investments and because we stand to receive additional compensation. We maintain various policies and procedures that are aimed at mitigating this conflict of interest, including waiving our advisory fee on assets invested in either fund.

How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

For more detailed information about our conflicts of interest and how we mitigate them, please review Items 4, 6, 10, 11 and 12 of our Form ADV Part 2A.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are generally compensated on a salary basis and may receive discretionary bonuses. In the event an employee earns a bonus, they are based on various factors. In addition, certain of our employees share in our revenues through revenue sharing agreements or indirectly through profits interest.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No. We encourage you to visit www.Investor.gov/CRS to research our firm and our financial professionals. Furthermore, we encourage you to ask your financial professional:

As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? If so, for what type of conduct?
